

1 2 3 4

A B C D

The Black Swan, Ockham

With pub to right, exit the car park, turn left and head gently uphill along lane. After 300 yards, lane bends to left then 70 yards on, to right.

Pass Ockham Lane stables to right, walk for 70 yards then turn left at crest on to tarmac track.

Head gently downhill with view of Hatchford Park to right. Walk for 700 yards, pass Oaklands then Ockham Manor to left. As track turns to left ahead, bear right past footpath sign to Ockham Common (see Assist A) on to track.

Head gently uphill through trees (may be soft underfoot) for 80 yards, pass marker post and continue ahead for 200 yards. Track heads downhill for 60 yards to intersection.

Turn left (see Assist B) and walk gently downhill through trees on wide track for 200 yards. Cross intersection and continue ahead for 220 yards then bear right on to wide sand/ gravel track (see Assist C).

Follow for 280 yards then bear left past Heathland Restoration board and continue on narrow track through Scotts pines for 250 yards. Head at 1 o'clock through car park to exit, cross road with care and turn left.

Walk along road for 200 yards (stepping off for passing traffic) then as road bends to left, bear right on to made up track, passing byway sign.

Follow track for 85 yards then pass barrier and walk ahead for 230 yards.

Pass through wood gate and continue ahead gently uphill on grass track for 150 yards.

Pass through wood gate on to airfield then walk ahead following path. After 280 yards you arrive at the main tarmac runway of Wisley's World War Two airfield. Cross between the barriers.

Continue ahead on track for 100 yards then turn left before wood gate (see Assist D) and head along right edge of field with fence immediately to right.

270 yards on, bear right at 1 o'clock and follow path for 250 yards to footpath sign/ path intersection (worth pausing to view impressive airfield beacon 180 yards to left).

At intersection, ignore stile to right and continue ahead with fence to right past paddocks for 150 yards. As fence angles to the right, continue on path ahead across field for 100 yards.

Exit field down bank with care then turn left and follow road (using verge where possible to negotiate traffic).

After 500 yards you arrive at road junction. Cross with care and you're back at the Black Swan to enjoy some well deserved hospitality.

